

Ministry of Children and Family Affairs, 13650 – 105A Street, Surrey B.C.

Client

A+A Construction

Dates

Not Specified

Project Type

Office/Bank

Consultants

Luis Leon Engineering (Structural Consultants)

Description

The youth centre consists of interviewing rooms, temporary facility for run away children and a play therapy rooms. The Surrey centre for adults and families consists of interviewing rooms for the department of addiction services, office for doctors and social workers, meeting rooms and administration offices. The building also has underground parking.

Structure: Three story steel frame building on top of concrete basement.