

Funding Feasibility Study: Kanaka Creek Watershed Stewardship Centre

Client: Pacific Parklands Foundation      Project Completion: November 2009

Scope of Work: Funding Feasibility, Demographic Research & Analysis, Qualitative Interviews

planning
architecture
culture & heritage

1030 - 470 granville street
vancouver bc canada | v6c 1v5
t. (604) 683-1903
f. (604) 683-7494
info@arlingtongroup.ca

the Arlington Group
planning + architecture

A funding feasibility study was completed for the proposed Kanaka Creek Watershed Stewardship Centre to be located in Maple Ridge. The Study was commissioned by the Pacific Parklands Foundation to establish whether the project was something the PPF were capable of supporting and if the time was right to start a fundraising campaign for the new facility. The study utilized both quantitative and qualitative research methods including, a series of interviews with potential donors and fundraisers.